

Glacier

The Glacier bottle-fed freestanding water cooler is a classic combination of both style and sophistication. The rounded cabinet is finished with a fluted Greek column design and provides you with exceptional reliability.

Suitable for any environment the Glacier bottled water cooler incorporates the latest technology giving you a time tested heating and cooling system that is effective. The Glacier bottled-fed water cooler is a product that can provide value for money.

The classical choice

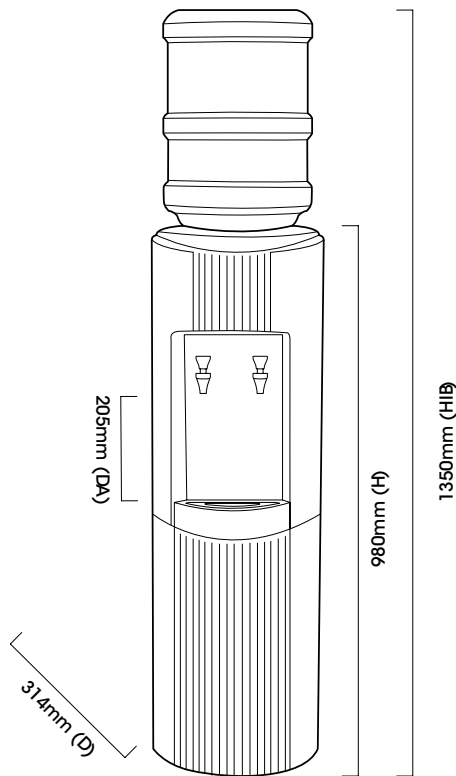

Key features

- Robust build quality
- Classic Greek column design
- Removable drip tray
- Child-proof hot water tap
- Hot water switch

Provided by

Product details

Water options	Technical features
Cold & ambient  	Types available	Free-standing
Cold & hot  	Colour	Black/White
	Weight	Cold & ambient 13.4kg Cold & hot 13.7kg
	Capacity	2.6 litres

Installation requirements

The Glacier can be installed anywhere that has a plug socket and allows for at least 70mm for ventilation around the cooler.

Please do not place in the following locations:

- Outside in the open air.
- In direct sunlight.
- In a dusty, unventilated or humid environment.
- On an uneven or sloping surface or one with water on it.